2025 COUNSELOR APPLICATION INFORMATION

Before filling out a Counselor application form, please read the following information CAREFULLY!

- -ALL Counselors are required to be CPR certified. If you have previously been certified you will be required to either recertify through the Red Cross or in a two-evening course offered here at The Farm (we will have more information on dates and times later in the year). This recertification is offered free of charge at The Farm. If you have never been certified, please contact the local chapter of the Red Cross for course offerings. YOU MUST BE CERTIFIED AT THE TIME OF EMPLOYMENT!
- -All Counselors are required to attend a counselor training session scheduled for Sunday, June 8th, from 1:00-3:00 pm. If you have a conflict, you must contact Seth by April 19.
- -Applicants are NOT guaranteed the weeks that they sign up for. All applicants will be notified by mail by April 7th, which weeks they have been assigned. A contract with pay rates will also be included in the letter. This contract must be signed and returned no later than May 1st to keep the assigned dates.
- Pay rates are based on previous camp experience and performance. This rate is confidential between the applicant and The Farm. Please do not share this information with other counselors.
- -Any questions or concerns, please contact Seth at 919-962-3276, or by e-mail at seth@uncfarm.org.
- -If you are a new employee of The Farm, you will be required to complete the following forms. NC AND Federal tax withholding forms, work permit (ages 15-17) and I-9 (proof of residency) and direct deposit authorization form. These forms will be on our website and must be returned by the orientation date of June 8th.

Please mail contracts and applications to the following address:
